THE CHINESE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG

Three-tier Framework of Language Enhancement Activities/Programmes for the Four-year Curriculum

Tier One

University Language Core Requirements (mandatory; credit-bearing)

Tier Two

Elective Language Proficiency Courses (self-initiated election; credit-bearing)

Tier Three

College Language and Culture
Enhancement and Independent
Learning Centre
Activities/Programmes
(self-initiated participation; non-credit-bearing)

- all undergraduate students are required to fulfill 6-unit Chinese and 9-unit English language requirements
- aiming to enhance students' language proficiency, in the skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing, for effective learning at university level
- •a variety of credit-bearing, elective language proficiency courses in English and Chinese (including Putonghua and Cantonese), offered by ELTU, CLL and CLC for students to take at their own initiatives
- •College-based language enhancement activities/ programmes; organized since 1995-96 to complement the University's formal language teaching and offered in an out-of-classroom, less formal manner
- •ILC a self-access independent learning facility, providing non-credit-bearing multi-facet language proficiency workshops and activities

Notes:

CLC: Yale-China Chinese Language Centre

CLL: Department of Chinese Language and Literature

ELTU: English Language Teaching Unit ILC: Independent Learning Centre